Davie County, N.C. Utilizes GTG's MapNimbus to Inform Citizens of Crime Information

GOLDSBORO, N.C. – Geographic Technologies Group (GTG) welcomes Davie County, N.C. to the fast-growing community of MapNimbus users. MapNimbus is an easy-to-use online mapping solution for the public that provides citizens with information on what is happening in their community. Davie County is currently using MapNimbus to show crime and sex offender data.

MapNimbus is an easy-to-use Google Maps-based interface that allows the public to view information in a variety of categories, including crime activity and sex offender data. It offers dynamic reporting tools that allow users to quickly analyze events that have occurred within a particular time.

MapNimbus has intuitive search capabilities allowing users to search by address or general location, such as parks or schools. MapNimbus also includes e-mail notification capabilities. MapNimbus will automatically e-mail users if there is an update within their predefined area, such as near their home or children's school.

"GTG is excited to implement MapNimbus in Davie County," said Brent Beck, a GIS Solutions Provider at GTG. "MapNimbus will help the County to continue promoting a safer and better community for their citizens. With the ability to map a wide variety of information in a single, easy-to-use public Web portal, MapNimbus will get citizens involved and excited about what is happening in their community."

MapNimbus will provide a noticeable return-on-investment at Davie County, saving time and valuable resources for both citizens and County personnel. It gives citizens access to important and relevant information.

MapNimbus is free to the public. Davie County citizens can experience MapNimbus by visiting <http://www.dacsonc.com/> and clicking on "Crime Mapping."
