

Spotsylvania County, Virginia Selects Geographic Technologies Group (GTG) to Implement GIS Software Solutions

Goldsboro, NC – Geographic Technologies Group, Inc. (GTG) announced today that Spotsylvania County, Virginia has procured software and services from GTG. The County procured GTG's GeoBlade Intranet and GeoBlade Web.

GeoBlade Intranet is a powerful GIS application that enables staff throughout the enterprise to access GIS and data stored in existing IT investments. The application allows for multiple departmental themes. Each department will have quick and easy access to information that will allow them to do their job more effectively. GeoBlade Intranet provides an intuitive, easy-to-use interface that can be deployed in a matter of days and provides an instantaneous return-on-investment. GeoBlade Web enables the public to easily and intuitively access data about the County via the Internet.

Curtis Hinton, CEO and Co-owner of GTG, stated that, "Spotsylvania County has long been a leader of GIS in Virginia. Staff understand that the most critical element of any successful GIS is enterprise access to GIS and IT data. On the heels of the endorsement of a comprehensive implementation plan, staff are aggressively moving forward with enterprise implementation. GTG looks forward to assisting the County with continued GIS success."
